

On the Regional Development of Buddhist Monasteries in Early Medieval South Asia

About the Book

The collection of papers included in this volume constitutes research conducted under the auspices of the 'Vihāra Project' (2017–20), supported by the Japan Society for the Promotion of Scientific Research (KAKEN-hi). Each contribution focuses on collating and (re)interpreting various underrepresented aspects of the extant art-historical, archaeological, epigraphic, and textual records in South Asia, collectively providing new insights into the history of early medieval Buddhist monasticism (6th-9th centuries CE).
